

JOY BOOKER (TARA)

Joy is a Managing Director and Head of U.S. Public Client Relations at PineBridge Investments, a global asset manager with over $97 billion in assets. Joy leads public plan business from marketing to service delivery, across fixed income, equities, and multi-asset strategies.

Joy's career in client-facing roles began as a management consultant at Price Waterhouse and Deloitte. After earning an MBA from Columbia University, she transitioned to asset management at New York Life and Mercer where she held institutional business development and strategy roles targeting public, corporate, insurance and foundation clients. Internationally, Joy's career experience includes assignments and project-work in Asia and Europe. Her body of work includes a pro-bono microfinance assignment for the Capital Markets Group of the Women's World Banking; selection as a finalist for the Acumen Fund's Global Fellows Program, selection as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow in Public Policy and the annual "Circle of Joy" school supply drive for children in South Africa.
