

Neutral Posture Announces New Chief Medical Director to Join Leadership Team

May 18, 2020

Samuel Harrison, MD, enhances Neutral Posture offerings by providing his medical expertise as Neutral Posture expands product line to include personal protective equipment and COVID-19 testing kits.

Bryan, TX-Neutral Posture, Inc., a leader in ergonomic seating and workplace systems has appointed a new Chief Medical Director to provide medical oversight as Neutral Posture begins the distribution of items including N95 Masks, KN95 Masks, 3-Ply Masks, and Cov-2/IgG Rapid Test Kits.

Dr. Harrison earned his Doctor of Medicine from the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas and completed his Surgical Residency at Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation and his Urological Residency at the Baylor College of Medicine. His undergraduate years were spent at Texas A&M University, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude from the College of Science.

“Dr. Harrison brings with him a wealth of experience that will be instrumental in assisting Neutral Posture as our product lines are enhanced due to COVID-19,” says Rebecca Boenigk, President and CEO of Neutral Posture. “Because of solid relationships we have with American and international businesses, including companies in Switzerland, Germany, Singapore, and China, we have the opportunity to directly impact the fight against the Coronavirus by distributing masks and test kits. While this is not our typical product line, we are thrilled to be able to help the American public by providing these critical items. In addition, Dr. Harrison will compliment Chief Ergonomist, Dr. Jerome Congleton, as we continue to provide offices and remote teleworkers ergonomic office solutions designed to promote health and safety in the workplace.”

“It’s a privilege to join a company with a shared passion for improving the health of our community and the American public,” says Dr. Harrison. “I’ve spent my career in the pursuit of providing high-quality patient-centered medical services. As a member of the Neutral Posture team, I get to continue that focus as we work together to keep Americans safe.”

