

CELINA DE SOLA (TARA)

Celina is a social entrepreneur and co-founder of Glasswing.org, an organization that addresses the root causes and consequences of poverty and violence through education, health, and community development initiatives in 10 countries. Celina has 20 years of experience in international development, including work in conflict zones and disasters. She's an Obama Fellow; Skoll Awardee; Fellow of Ashoka, and LEGO Reimagine Learning; as well as a Tallberg Global Leader. She serves on several Boards and the Advisory Councils of the Inter-American Foundation and Givewith. Celina holds master's degrees in social work and public health from the University of Pennsylvania and Harvard.