

JUDITH BATTY (GROVER)

Currently serving as Interim CEO, Judith made history as the first Black woman to lead the Girl Scouts USA. She is an executive with a breadth of experience in structuring and negotiating complex international acquisitions, divestitures, financings and market entry. She is comfortable navigating countries and challenges, maintaining a keen focus on success and delivering bottom line results. With a proven track record of working at the top executive levels within a top fortune 500 company, Judith also brings expertise in legal, public and government affairs, and business operations.

Judith currently serves on the Board of the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority (MWAA). MWAA operates Dulles and Ronald Reagan airports, the Dulles toll road and oversees the construction of the Silver metro line to Dulles. The Board, which has plenary power, establishes policy and provides strategic direction to management. Judith also served as an executive and senior attorney at Exxon Mobil Corporation for over 28 years. She was the first female, and first African American, General Counsel of ExxonMobil's 3000 employee, publicly traded, Japanese affiliate.
