

LACEY HORN (NYOMI)

An internationally recognized thought leader, visionary creator and financial expert, Lacey's most recent venture is CEO of Native Advisory LLC where she serves Tribal Leaders as a strategy and financial consultant. To direct greater impact investment into Indian Country, Horn founded the Native Opportunity Zone Fund LLP solely dedicated to Tribal Opportunity Zones.

Most recently serving as Treasurer of the Cherokee Nation, Lacey oversaw all financial functions of the tribal government including administration of a $1.2 billion annual budget. Horn negotiated an uncollateralized $170 million syndicated bank loan to build the largest Indian Health Service joint venture project in the country as part of an overall $400 million healthcare Infrastructure and IT expansion. She authored two major pieces of legislation – one modernized the Nation's banking code and the second created the Cherokee Nation Sovereign Wealth Fund, which she then led efforts to diversify its portfolio. Lacey served on the IT Steering Committee and oversaw strategic investment into the Nation's IT infrastructure.