

SARAH FANDELL (TARA)

Sarah currently serves as General Counsel of the U.S. Trade & Development Agency (USTDA). In this capacity, she serves as the chief legal officer and a member of USTDA's executive management team. She is responsible for providing authoritative legal advice and representing the agency on a diverse portfolio of issues while leading the team of attorneys in USTDA's Office of the General Counsel. She also provides legal guidance to the Director on broad issues related to the mission, strategic direction and effectiveness of the Agency.

Sarah previously served as VP, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary at the Millennium Challenge Corporation, where she also served as a member of the executive team and oversaw the Office of General Counsel, including operation of the MCC's ethics program and anti-fraud and corruption program.